Ambassador's Message on Eid-ul-Fitr

As we prepare to bid farewell to the holy month of Ramzan, I wish the Pakistani-American community a very joyous Eid ul-Fitr.

It would be a great pleasure for me and my family to join our Pakistani-American friends and their families on this festive occasion.

Please accept our best wishes on the Eid, which is a special opportunity to strengthen our bonds with our families and the larger Pakistani American and Muslim communities.

The blessed occasion of Eid also brings us a chance to promote our venerated religious and cultural values and traditions in the multicultural and diverse American society.

While partaking in the festivities of Eid we must not forget our brothers and sisters back home who lack means to celebrate. As we rejoice, let us also resolve to continue praying and striving for peace and prosperity in our country.

Disseminating a message of love, unity and brotherhood with everybody around us would be the real reward of the blessed month of Ramzan and the auspicious moment of Eid. May Allah bless us all.

Eid Mubarak!

(Jalil Abbas Jilani)
